AEROTECHNIC ANNOUNCES ANKER AS OUR NEW AVIATION CARPET SUPPLIER!

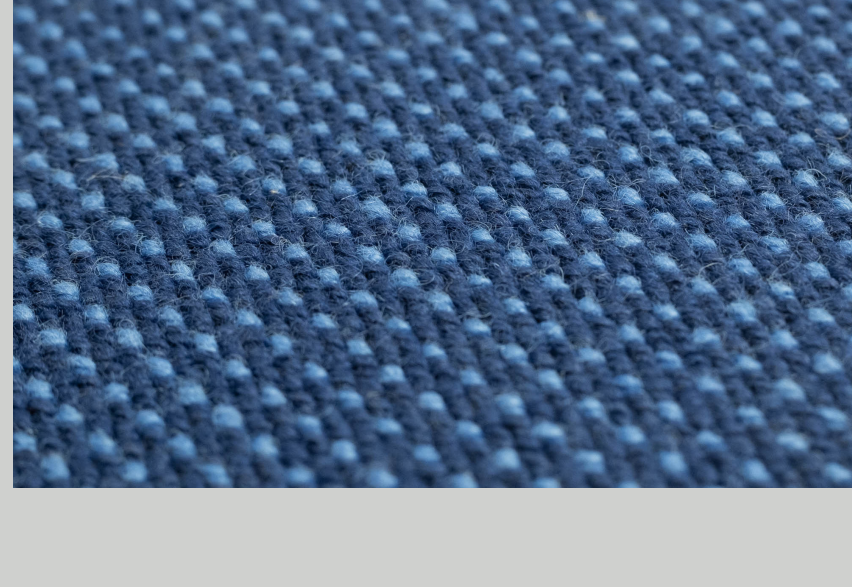

We are excited to introduce ANKER as our new aviation carpet supplier, replacing Tarkett, whose aviation division has closed. ANKER, a leader in aviation carpet manufacturing and brings over 60 years of experience producing lightweight, fire-retardant, and durable carpets that meet the stringent standards of modern air travel.

CUSTOMER-FAVORITE CARPETS, NOW BY ANKER:

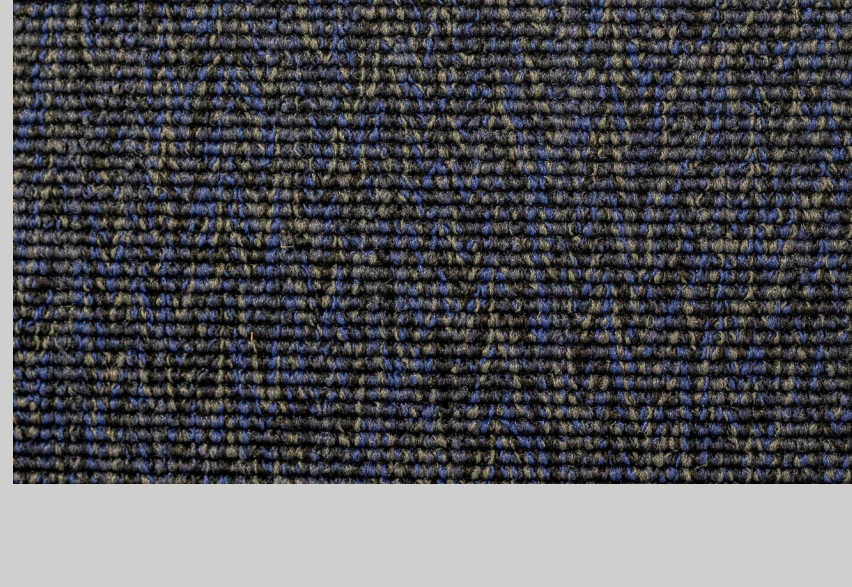

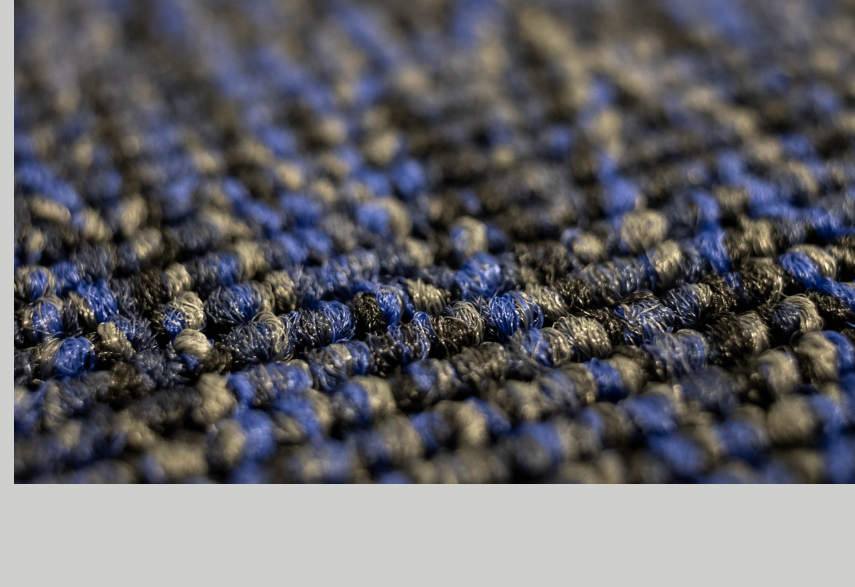

For our valued clients, ANKER has seamlessly replicated our best-selling model, previously known as Tarkett's PN 507L131, which remains highly popular with regional operators. This best-seller is now available under two new part numbers:

PN 6274-092015-3AW (Wool Version) PN 4584-092015-3AU (Nylon Version)

NEW PRODUCTS FOR NEW CLIENTS:

We're also proud to offer ANKER's "AIRLIGHT ECONYL RIPS" collection, designed for sustainability and comfort. Our stock includes the PN 4541-091012-3DN (Blue Version), known for its eco-friendly materials and cabin noise reduction.

ANKER'S CAPABILITIES:

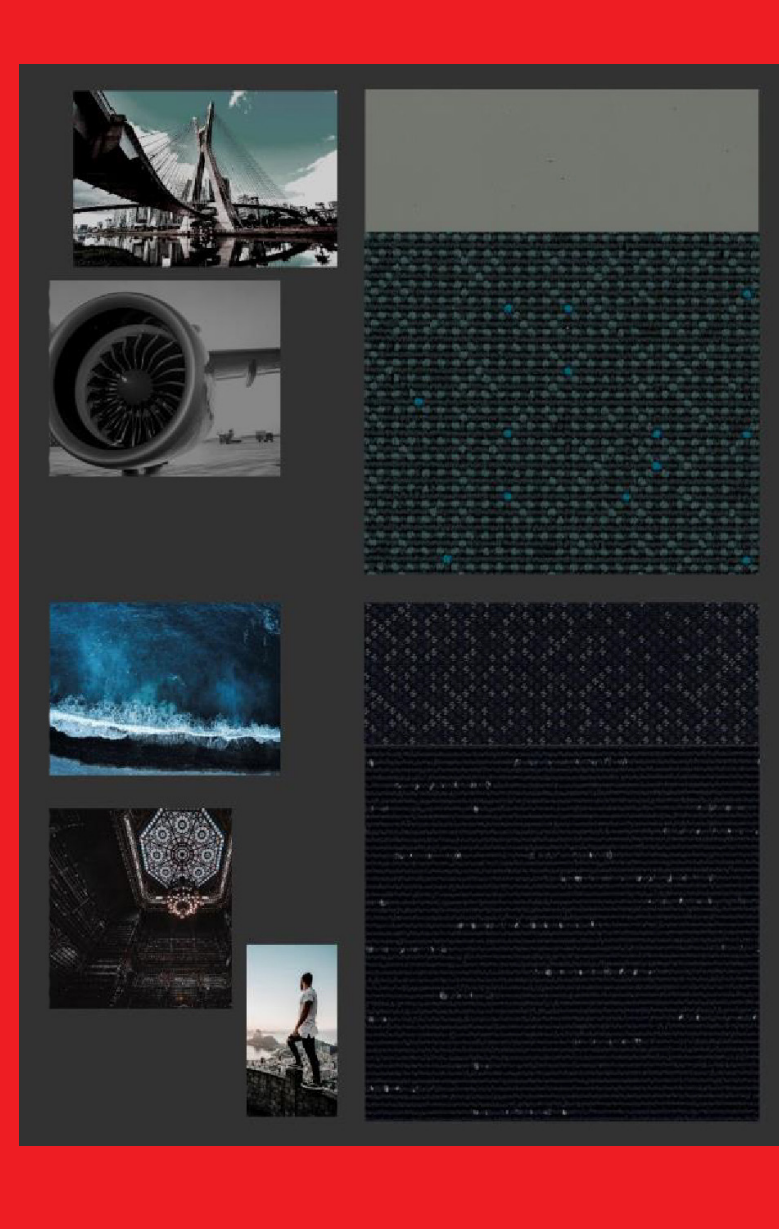

ANKER's aviation carpets are recognised globally for innovation, quality, and sustainability:

Innovations: Lightweight, easy-to-install, and CO2-saving carpets that reduce cabin noise.

Quality & Certifications: Certified to EN ISO 9100 and approved for Boeing and Airbus standards, all carpets undergo rigorous in-house testing.

Sustainability: Recyclable materials and reduced environmental impact ensure maximum resource conservation.

Design Versatility: Offering custom designs, ANKER tailors aviation carpets to the unique branding of airlines worldwide.

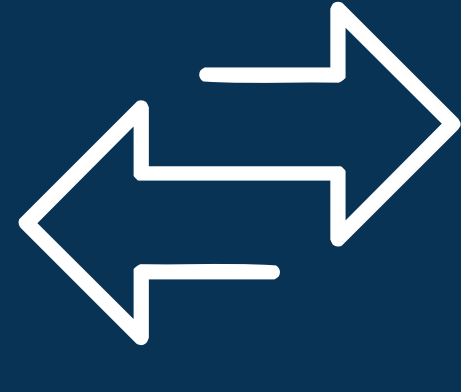

WITH ANKER'S CUTTING-EDGE SOLUTIONS AND AEROTECHNIC'S COMMITMENT TO QUALITY, WE WILL CONTINUE TO LEAD THE WAY IN AVIATION FLOORING!
