AEROTECHNIC AND MANKIEWICZ
A PARTNERSHIP ELEVATING AVIATION
PERFORMANCE!

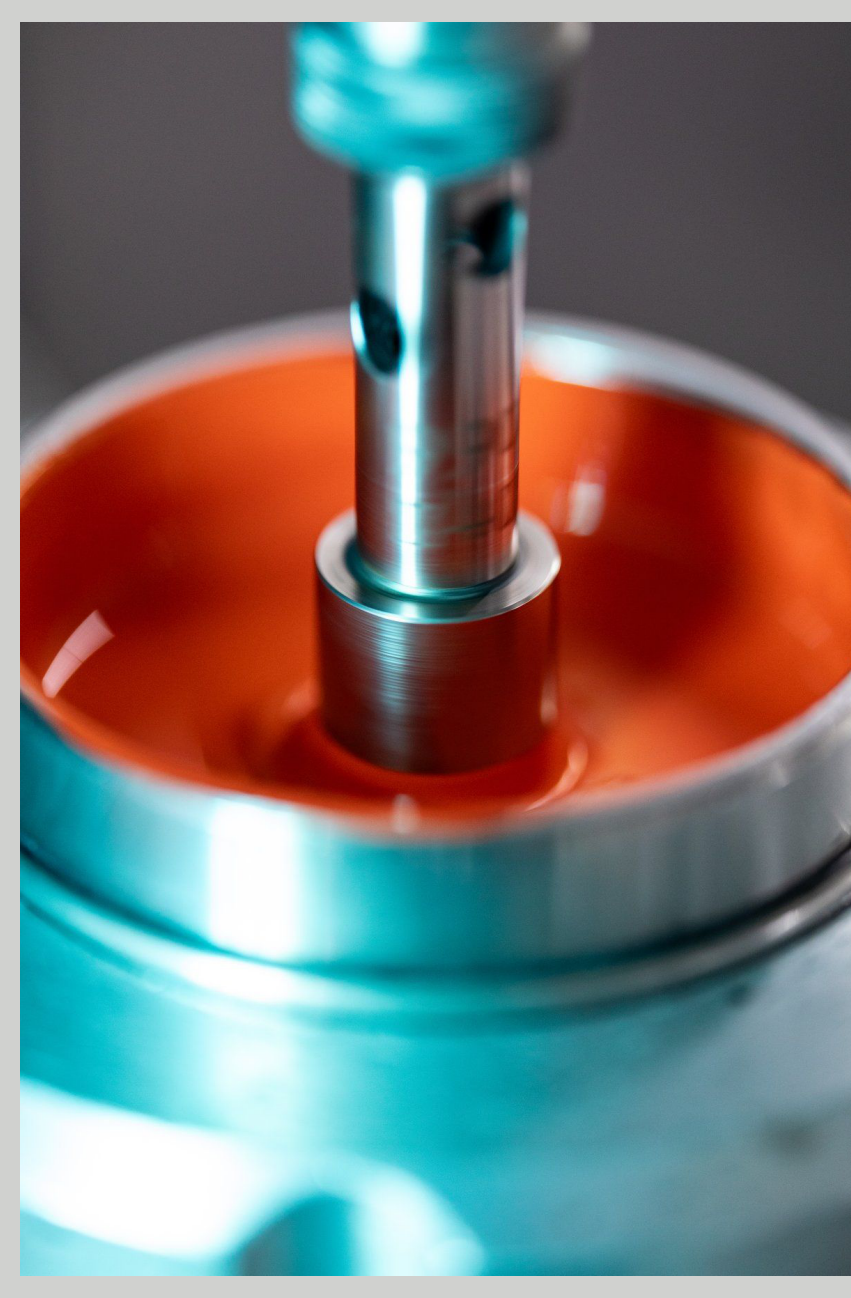

CELEBRATING 21 YEARS OF PARTNERSHIP!
AEROTECHNIC & MANKIEWICZ
A COLLABORATION BUILT ON EXCELLENCE

Since 2003, Aerotechnic has proudly worked with Mankiewicz, a global leader in high-quality industrial coatings. With 18 facilities worldwide and nearly 130 years of expertise, they set the standard in Aviation, Automotive, and more.

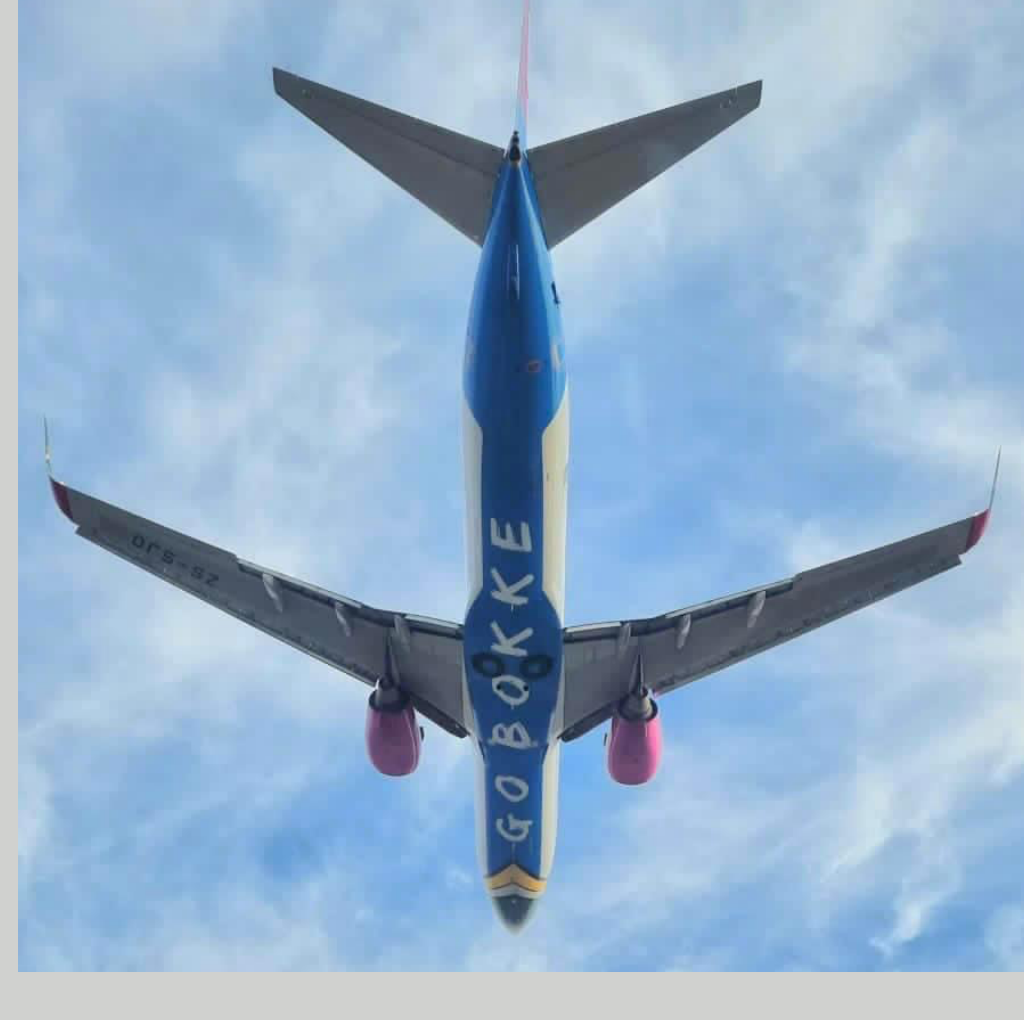

In the world of aviation, performance, safety, and efficiency are paramount. Aerotechnic and Mankiewicz have formed a strong partnership, combining their expertise to deliver cutting-edge solutions for the industry. With a shared commitment to innovation, they ensure that aircraft achieve the lowest possible weight, the highest levels of passenger safety, and superior resistance to stress. This collaboration integrates Mankiewicz's globally recognized, high-performance coatings with Aerotechnic's deep industry knowledge and distribution capabilities, providing airlines, MROs, and manufacturers in Sub-Saharan Africa and Indian Ocean Islands with solutions that enhance aircraft durability and efficiency.

Mankiewicz, a pioneer in industrial coatings since 1895, has set new standards in aviation with its advanced coating technologies. From exterior finishes to interior surfaces and structural components, Mankiewicz's coatings are designed for maximum protection, aesthetics, and longevity. Their BaseCoat/ClearCoat system revolutionized exterior coatings by enhancing gloss, durability, and environmental sustainability, while their FST-certified interior coatings ensure superior FST properties the focus for structural parts coatings is on corrosion resistance. Through its extensive testing and certifications from leading OEMs and regulatory bodies, Mankiewicz guarantees reliability and performance in every application.

Aerotechnic plays a crucial role in delivering these innovative solutions to the Sub-Saharan Africa and Indian Ocean Islands aviation industry, ensuring seamless integration into aircraft maintenance and manufacturing processes. By working closely with Mankiewicz, Aerotechnic provides airlines and MROs with coatings that not only meet regulatory requirements but also optimize aircraft operations by reducing weight, minimizing downtime, and improving fuel efficiency. The result is a powerful synergy that elevates aviation performance, reinforcing the industry's commitment to safety, sustainability, and cost-effectiveness. Together, Aerotechnic and Mankiewicz continue to push the boundaries of excellence, shaping the future of aviation one aircraft at a time.
