NEW YEAR, NEW HEIGHTS: AEROTECHNIC 2026

Happy New Year from Aerotechnic South Africa!

We're officially back for 2026 and ready to keep your fleet flying safely, efficiently, and reliably. This year, we're building on our trusted supply, technical expertise, and global support to make 2026 our strongest year yet.

Team Spotlight: The People Behind Your Flight Success

Our Sales Team may be the frontline, but behind every successful order and on-time delivery is a dedicated support team working in sync. From logistics and stores to technical and operations support, it's this collective effort that keeps our clients across Sub-Saharan Africa flying with confidence.

Together, our teams deliver:

- ◆ Stronger client support through seamless collaboration
- ◆ Smarter, faster solutions backed by technical and operational expertise
- ◆ Continued reliability across every operation, every step of the way

It's teamwork that powers every partnership we build.

Introducing Aerotechnic India: Increasing our global footprint

Big News: A new India office is coming soon!

This expansion strengthens our international reach, delivering more regions, more support, and more growth for our clients.

Building a Stronger Team for 2026

We're excited to welcome a new Storeman and providing extra support to our Johannesburg team. This strengthens our service, improves turnaround times, and ensures even greater support for our clients.

Here's to bigger capacity, better efficiency, and a stronger 2026.

Your Next Step

Let's make 2026 the year of smarter operations and stronger partnerships. Aerotechnic South Africa is ready to support your fleet with trusted supply, expert technical guidance, and world-class service.
